

Internet Protocol

Inclusive Works is a private organisation with a social mission. For this reason, everyone engaged with Inclusive Works, no matter if employee, trainee, intern or volunteer, should do their utmost to treat individuals with friendliness, respect and dignity.

To ensure a proper work environment, in addition, it is also necessary that everyone who works for IW, or on behalf of IW, knows and abides by the following internet protocol.

During the working hours and while using Inclusive Works' material (laptops, telephones, internet, etc.) the person who works for Inclusive Works cannot:

- use social media channels if this is not for the work of IW
- download software if it will not be used directly for the work of IW
- view or download pornography
- view or download information that is terrorist in nature or can be used for terrorist purposes
